The Cumberland County Board of Commissioners believes that all citizens should have the opportunity to participate in governmental decisions. One way of participating is by serving as a citizen member of the Cumberland County Mental Health Board. The Mental Health Board has two vacancies in the category of Mental Health Representative, Family Consumer and Alcoholism, Primary Consumer, Presently in Recovery. If you feel you are qualified and wish to be considered for appointment to the Mental Health Board under this category, please contact the Office of the County Commissioners at (910) 678-7772 to request an application. Applications are also available online at www.co.cumberland.nc.us.

YOU MUST BE A RESIDENT OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY TO APPLY. Applications must be submitted for consideration no later than Friday, November 14, 2008. Please note that some of the Mental Health Board meetings occur during the day. If you are unable to attend meetings during the day, you may want to check the meeting schedule of the Mental Health Board before submitting an application by contacting the Mental Health Area Board Clerk at (910) 222-6133.
