Kevin & Karen Leal

Kevin's Bio

For over 30 years Kevin has been operating as a prophet to the Body of Christ. Kevin discovered his prophetic gift while witnessing to the lost and in his weekly cell group meetings. In his early years of ministry Kevin would prophesy over hundreds of people during the course of a two or three day meeting with amazing accuracy. This phase of his ministry lasted almost ten years with great blessing to individuals but with little long term impact to the corporate destiny of local churches.

In the early 1980's the Holy Spirit spoke these words to Kevin, "you have been operating with your ministry gift, but now you will begin to operate in the fullness of your calling, you have used your gift for blessing, but now you will use it for equipping others for ministry."

This word caused a major redefinition and reemphasis in how Kevin's used his prophetic gift. Kevin's ministry emphasis went from blessing to building, from education to equipping those that could eventually become leaders of leaders. Kevin's now seeks out Apostolic leaders who have the capacity to build local churches that will have a regional and global impact.

Many of Kevin's meetings are marked by an unusual Presence from the Holy Spirit that causes both the leaders and workers to have a ministry awakening of the same kind he experienced, creating an intense desire within the hearts of people to go from desiring blessing to building, watching to working, and from education to equipping for real life ministry with an intense supernatural impact.
