LET’S ACTUALLY PRACTICE FORGIVING

A New York physician says that seventy percent of his patients reveal resentment in their issues. “Ill-will and grudges help to make people sick.” Forgiveness, “he says,” will do more toward getting them well than many pills.”” Another physician tells of a patient who died of “grudge”—a long-held hatred of another person. So it is healthy to forgive, to say nothing of it being the right way to live.

If you are really serious about self-improvement, you had better do a resentment removal job on yourself. What are some practical steps to take? How shall you proceed to achieve a forgiving attitude? Carefully and painstakingly do the following:

1. Determine that you are going to do this, even if it requires great effort and discouragement. It is not easy to revise deep attitudes. You may be inclined to abandon the effort because it will seem so hard, but hang on. In due time, you will feel the resentment leave you.

2. Remember the harm resentment can do, not to the other person, but to you, even to making you ill.

3. Remember that you will never be spiritually blessed until you forgive. This is a basic spiritual law. Good will cannot flow toward you unless it flows from you.

4. Thinking about forgiving is not enough. You must come to a specific moment when you say, “with God’s help, I NOW forgive.” (Do that at THIS moment, now, as you read this and be positive.)

5. Repent the Lord’s Prayer, inserting your offender’s name.

Verse of the Month
by Dr. Ernestine Malloy

What is Your Issue?

This scene of Mark focuses on the woman with the issue of blood. As noted in scripture, this woman dealt with this issue for twelve long years, paying all she had to different physicians. An issue is anything that continues day after day.

This particular issue was the flaw, which considered her to be ceremonially unclean. Mark declares that even though this woman had been to many physicians, her condition grew worse.

As we are coming upon this holiday season, let us focus on ourselves, and find out what is your own individual issue.

In your issue adversity, formication, uncleanliness, lasciviousness, (Gal. 5:19), idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, varnish, emulations, wrath, seditions, heresies, (Gal 5:21) are all works of the flesh. When we are satisfying the flesh, we do what feels good, so there-we are not walking in the spirit.

During this holiday season, is your credit card your issue? Are we making charges on our cards and marsing them out? The balances are running from month to month and from year to year, never getting your balance down to zero. In using your credit cards for the holiday, is your mind set on materialistic things?

Are you so over extended that you can’t pay your titles and offerings? What is your issue? Is it drugs or being a busybody, or just speaking un-

We as the children of the Most High God, have to give our issues to Jesus. We are to cast our cares upon HIM, for HIM cares for you (1 Peter 5:7).
